POLYESTER RIP-STOP TECHNOLOGY
extremely durable fly protection!

Take Control this Fly Season.

This fly season use Professional's Choice new line of fly protection products to have your horse feeling comfortable and fly free. Constructed out of ultra strong, uniquely breathable and UV-protective material, the Professional's Choice new fly protection products are designed to be lighter weight and more flexible than those from standard meshes, for added comfort. Extremely durable rip-stop technology resists tears while locking pests out, leaving your horse with barely there protection that is so effective they won't even know its fly season.
